AFL On the Mark

By Robert Vanstam
AFLNZ CEO

Hawthorn Football Club will visit New Zealand to carry out school clinics in Christchurch 21st, Wellington 22nd and Auckland 23rd June. A player contingent including New Zealanders Trent Croad and Shane Savage will visit eight secondary schools promoting the new Junior Secondary School Competition, "The Hawks Cup", to be played October, November this year.

In the AFL, a tie between Collingwood and Melbourne as well as Fremantle's second loss in as many weeks has sured up Geelong and St Kilda as likely to duke it out for the 2010 Premiership. The two teams square off this weekend, both with injury concerns but performing regardless.
